This I believe is a very important communication. This information, the writer believes, should be in your possession.

It refers to the diamond activities of the firm of [REDACTED]

4/7/39- Sub Bu. of Customs
cc- Los Angeles, JED

[REDACTED] and his assistant make a trip to Europe every year about the month of April, ostensibly to purchase jewelry. Some time last spring, Mrs. Jack Benny, wife of the radio star, was supposed to have brought to the Sunset store, a large valuable diamond estimated at about $16,000.- It was placed in the safe and only [REDACTED] and his assistant [REDACTED] knew of its whereabouts. While [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] were in Europe, the diamond was supposed to have been stolen from the safe, yet there were no evidences of an outside attempt to steal it. They reported it to the insurance Company, and some of the details to the local police. This was at the time that the newspapers were publishing the case of the jewelry smuggling of Jack Benny and Burns. It is also known that [REDACTED] as brought back jewelry from Paris and Nice, Fr., but do not know whether he paid duty on it. [REDACTED] has not a good name with the Int. Rev Bureau on tax matters. At this time and altho business was making $50,000.- a year [REDACTED] assigned his property and home in Santa Barbara, and all contents, as per Los Angeles County records. MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

In connection with your call to Inspector Foxworth last night regarding Jack Benny's case with respect to the allegation that Cahill is going to persecute the man rather than prosecute him, Mr. Foxworth telephoned me this morning after talking to Mr. Cahill.

Mr. Cahill said to tell you that the attorney had been in to see him and wanted him to dismiss the indictment; that when he refused to do this, the attorney wanted to enter a plea of nolle prosequi. Mr. Cahill is not familiar with this plea and informed the attorney that such pleas are not acceptable in that district. Cahill also told the attorney that he would not take a plea of nolo contendere.

Mr. Cahill wanted you informed of his appreciation for giving him the information and that he would like to discuss this with you some time and assure you that no personalities are coming into the case. Mr. Foxworth advised Mr. Cahill that you had no interest in the matter other than to furnish him the information and that you knew nothing about the merits of the case.

Respectfully,

~~PERSONAL AND

Dear Sir:

In a recent conversation with [REDACTED] National Broadcasting Company of Hollywood, California, he being a director and producer of shows, he advised me that JACK BENNY, radio comedian, who, according to today's press, pled guilty to smuggling charges in New York City, has been very worried as to the outcome of the trial. [REDACTED] arranges the program for BENNY and is intimately acquainted with him. BENNY and his sponsors were very much afraid that he would receive a penitentiary sentence in connection with this case.

b7C

He advised me confidentially that EDDIE CANTOR, who has recently made a number of public remarks relative to his dislike for HITLER and things German in general, has had difficulty with his sponsors, the American Tobacco Company, and the sponsor actually endeavored to cancel his contract after a recent episode in Hollywood. They were not legally able to break this contract and the comedian has eight or nine weeks before it expires.

After the conclusion of a recent broadcast in Hollywood, CANTOR made some remarks about HITLER and an individual in the rear of the studio arose and left and was followed by two persons, who are reported to have attacked him after engaging in a verbal dispute outside the studio. There was some talk of filing charges against the attackers, one of whom was said to have been an individual on the program with CANTOR. Apparently the incident, as well as CANTOR'S remarks, were very disgusting to the broadcasting company officials and he is becoming increasingly unpopular in radio circles.

Inspector Foxworth called and furnished the following developments in connection with [REDACTED] in the Jack Benny case; b7C, b7D

[REDACTED] has told Mr. Foxworth that he has been shaken down for ten or twelve thousand dollars by Morris Rosen, Oscar Moore, [REDACTED], these individuals having knowledge of [REDACTED] past criminal record. [REDACTED] went to [REDACTED] who runs a night club in New York City, and told [REDACTED] he was not going to stand any more shake-downs and was going to report to the authorities. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that he, [REDACTED], and "John Edgar Hoover were just like that"; that you had sat at his table and [REDACTED] exhibited to [REDACTED] a photograph from you signed "To my friend". [REDACTED] states he did nothing further and that he is afraid of every one. b7C b7C b7C

[REDACTED] says that Gracie Allen was just as guilty in the smuggling case as George Burns; that in fact Gracie Allen jointly signed the checks with Burns; and that Mary Livingston is the real one involved in the Jack Benny case and that she had personally given him the jewelry he was to bring over. George Burns, according to [REDACTED] deducted from his income tax the amount he paid for the Jewelry. Also that when the Customs officials raided Burns and Allen's apartment, certain narcotics were found. [REDACTED] has been informed by an individual, presently in the Federal House of Detention from Alcatraz, that both Burns and Allen use narcotics and that this is the reason Gracie wears long sleeves all the time. The individual claims he has sold narcotics to George and Gracie. b7C, b7D

[REDACTED] also mentioned [REDACTED], a well-known bondsman in the Southern District, and stated [REDACTED] is supposed to be a contact man of Assistant U. S. Attorney Delaney. He also stated he had been told that if he made certain payments to [REDACTED] (mentioned in the Manton case) that [REDACTED] would take care of his case for him. The payments were not made as he had a falling-out with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] also furnished Mr. Foxworth information concerning three other pay-off matters that [REDACTED] is supposed to have originated but which did not go through. Mr. Foxworth is to send the details of these to the Bureau. b7C, b7D

Dear Sir:

There ought be a law compelling the publication in daily press of the right name of criminals. Jack Benny's name is not Jack Benny (which is English American) also Burn's is the same. Benny's name is Kubelsky. Burn's is Birnbaum. It's outrageous to give to Foreign criminals Eng. American names and disgrace us, looks like an Irishman. With all the Irish Judges cops etc. I don't doubt but many Irish crooks are recorded & published under American names.

Dear Sir:

During an interview which I had with [REDACTED] b7C, b7D, he informed me that on one of his trips to America a year or more ago, an effort which was successful, had been made by MORRIS ROSEN, OSCAR MOORE, [REDACTED] to shake him down for a certain sum of money. [REDACTED] claims that, these individuals approached him and told him that they knew of his past criminal record and further that it was their intention to kidnap him and throw him in the river unless he paid to them the sum of $50,000. They stated they needed this money for LUCKY LUCIANO.

[REDACTED] claims that he did pay them approximately $12,000 and thereafter he contacted one [REDACTED] Detective of the New York City Police Department, who made an investigation. According to [REDACTED] thereafter wanted to know if he desired prosecution and he informed him that he did not as the resulting publicity would undoubtedly ruin him. [REDACTED] then claims to have prepared a statement in which he outlined exactly what had happened so far as the individuals named above were concerned. After this had been done he approached [REDACTED] and told him that he had prepared such a statement and copies of it were in his safety boxes both in America and Europe and that if anything happened to him the matter would immediately be known to the public. b7C

At that time [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that no one would believe any statements that he might leave and that he [REDACTED] was friendly with many people prominent in public life. Dear Sirs:

I expect that in a few moments this scroll will be relegated to the waste basket. We (I speak for the majority of my friends) feel that Justice is not done with reference to the cases of Jack Benny & Geo. Burns.

The Judges and Sponsors of these people must think, we gullible public will stand for anything. To be sure we have let a great many similar cases go by in the past. I suppose primarily because we thought we could do nothing about it, even now we do not know just how to proceed, but we intend to try.

They the culprits would no doubt like us to forget it but myself and friends think it is about time the general public began to take things into their own hands.

We have a general manager in the person of J. Edgar Hoover who is trying diligently to cut crime in this country, but whose hands and efforts are tied, unless the people do their part. I and about 25 or 30 of my friends can see very little difference between the acts of Benny and Burns and those of Fatty Arbuckle except in the latter case his act reacted against himself and the motion picture interests for which he paid the penalty, while Burns and Benny committed a crime against the Government and as we the people are the government, we are going to do something about it.

We thought about chain letters throughout the country, kindly advise. In the meantime our radios are turned against any program upon which they appear. You are at liberty to publish this letter, but I have very little hopes of it.

Maid Informer to Get Slice of Benny's Fine

Int'l News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 6.—Rosa Weber, a German housemaid with some degree of fondness for Adolf Hitler, emerged today as the only individual winner in division of the smuggling jackpot into which George Burns and Jack Benny, screen and radio stars, have tumbled almost $15,000 in duties and penalties.

It was Rosa who upset the appecart and brought the federal men on the run to open the smuggling probe which involved Burns, Benny and others and today she stood to collect as much as $5,000 in the role of government informer.

The government pays tipsters who pass along information on smugglers. 25 per cent of the duties and penalties collected as a result of the tip and while Rosa hasn't received hers yet and nobody wants to talk about it officially, she is an off-the-record entry for a quarter of the cash handed over by the screen stars and by Mrs. Elma Lauer.

TALK OF HITLER

Rosa never suspected when she joined in the conversation at the home of Mrs. Lauer, wife of a Supreme Court justice, that she was laying the groundwork for a small personal fortune.

The conversation on that eventful evening centered about Adolf

Hitler and the conversers were Mrs. Lauer, her husband, and Albert N. Chaperau.

Rosa was serving the soup and she got so angry at what the diners were saying about the German leader that she put down her tray and waded right into the conversation. That was the end of Rosa's soup-serving career at the Lauers and the beginning of a large headache for most of the film colony and the Broadway crowd—people who never had heard of Rosa.

CONVICTED SMUGGLER

Without a thought of informer's fees but only burned to a crisp because of the incident at her employer's home, Rosa dashed down to the customs office and identified Mrs. Lauer as a smuggler. Unfortunately for Mrs. Lauer, she had been caught smuggling previously and had paid a substantial fine so the customs officers, after taking an affidavit from Rosa, went up to the justice's house to have a look-see.

From Rosa's complaint and that preliminary investigation stemmed the major smuggling probe which, before it ended with the sentencing of Burns and Benny on guilty pleas and the anti-climax sentencing of Mrs. Lauer and Chaperau—identified as Shapiro—involved a considerable number of names found more often in lights than on grand jury records.

Pro-Nazi Maid Gets $6,714 for Exposing Burns, Benny

NEW YORK, April 6.—(AP)—The pro-Hitler huff that led Rosa Weber, a German maid, to turn in former against a smuggling con-piracy which involved Jack Benny and George Burns will net her at least $6,714 in United States Government reward, it was disclosed today.

The maid, employed in the household of State Supreme Court Justice Edgar J. Lauer, quit her job, vowing "revenge," at the height of a dinner party at which the Lauers' guests voiced anti-Nazi remarks.

"Ladies and gentlemen," the maid was quoted as telling the startled dinner guests, "I am a true German. I love Adolf Hitler. If you don't stop speaking against him, I will stop serving the dinner right now."

She went to Government authorities, with the result that customs agents later raided the Lauer apartment and afterwards arrested Albert N. Chaperau, confessed smuggler, who had been one of the dinner guests, thereby opening the trail that led to Benny and Burns. Mrs. Lauer, Chaperau, and the two radio and screen comedians all pleaded guilty. Benny paid a $10,000 fine and Burns $8,000. In addition, $8,816 worth of smuggled jewels and clothing were confiscated.

Under Treasury Department regulations, the maid will be rewarded for her role of informer by 25 per cent of the total fines and 25 per cent of the 100 per cent penalty imposed on the smuggled articles—or 25 per cent of the grand total of $26,816.

Additional sums may be forthcoming next Tuesday when Chaperau and Mrs. Lauer are scheduled to be sentenced.
